Celebration

Saturday, December 1, 2018

JOIN US as a VENDOR at the 30th Annual Victorian Christmas Celebration!

Each year Mooresville, Indiana turns back the clock to the 1880's for a celebration not to be missed. Father Christmas and Scrooge are joined throughout the downtown area by choirs, performers and old-fashioned entertainers. A trolley takes visitors to stops throughout the celebration including a puppet show, holiday workshops, and toy train display. ADMISSION is FREE.

In recent years, a Christmas Bazaar was added, allowing vendors and artisans to participate. Space is available to select vendors. Outdoor Vendors should dress warmly. Vendors may furnish own trailer, tent or canopy. Vendors must furnish their own tables/chairs and other set up needs. Electricity is available indoors on a limited basis for a fee. Past vendors have included holiday decorations, weavers, booksellers, silhouette cutters, and candle makers. While we do not require that vendors dress in Victorian or holiday clothing, it is strongly encouraged. Direct Sales Representatives are restricted.

SETUP: Indoor set-up begins Friday from Noon until 7:00p.m. & Saturday at 7:30 a.m. All setup must be completed by 9:30 am. Unless special arrangements have been made prior to the event. Tear down is not to take place until 4:00 pm.
